vs. : (Magistrate Sherman)

VILLAGE OF WOODLAWN :
POLICE, et al :
Defendants. : AFFIDAVIT OF JENNIFER EDDINGS

State of Ohio :
: ss:
County of Hamilton :

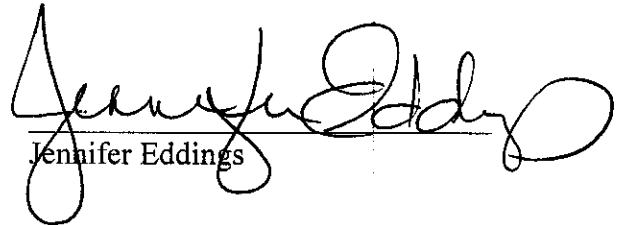

Now comes the Affiant, Jennifer Eddings under oath and based on her own personal knowledge and states as follows:

1. I had a conversation with an employee of Skyline who told me that they were instructed by the owner and management not to talk to myself or to my son's attorney about the case.
2. Before the Preliminary Hearing was over I called Beverly Sizemore, the Manager of Skyline to get Raymond's work schedule to prove that he may not have worked the day that Katie claimed the Gross Sexual Imposition happened.
3. Mrs. Sizemore told me that she was instructed by the owner who she said was named "Pete" that she and all the other Skyline employee were not allowed to give me or my son's attorney any information about this case and not to discuss this case with me or my son's attorney.
4. During the Trial of my son's case Amanda Hollingsworth, who was still employed at Skyline at the time, told me that Officer Ohl tried to get her and all the other female employees mad at Raymond to support Katie's lies. Amanda said he did this by falsely telling them that I said they were whores and sluts and that my son Raymond could get anyone of them in bed and sleep with anyone of them if he wanted to.

5. During the Trial of my son's case Amanda Hollingsworth told me that the Brunzman's and their victim advocates were trying to get Amanda to change her testimony so that it would support the allegations of Katie Brunzman.
6. Many Skyline employees would not discuss this case with me or the attorney I hired for my son.
7. At some of the pre-trial hearings, it came to my attention that the Brunzman's had retained a private attorney to sue my son and Skyline Chili.
8. At my son's sentencing two attorneys on behalf of the Brunzman's stated that they were present for a civil suit and requested a copy of the transcript and the Court granted their request.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.
